

Training Support Program Quick Application

(This cover sheet must be returned with application submission)

The Quick Application is designed for training that is less than four weeks in duration. Training Support has been identified as the next step of your Return to Work Action Plan. While this application is intended to provide Amber Education Services Ltd. with information to assess your training request, we may require additional information beyond that requested herein. Please bring your Return to Work Action Plan to our office in order to submit the Quick Application.

Note: The mandate of the Training Support Program is to assist eligible individuals in returning to the work force in the most direct route to sustainable employment. Amber Education Services Ltd. must validate that the training proposed has a strong likelihood of resulting in employment as supported by labour market information.

- For more information about the program, Amber Education Services offers a Training Information Session on a scheduled basis in the following areas: Downtown Victoria, Colwood, Sooke, Saanich, Sidney, Salt Spring Island, Nanaimo, Duncan, Parksville, Ladysmith and Lake Cowichan. For dates and times, please contact your local employment resource centre. Information is also available on-line at www.ambered.com.
- For clarification of any questions within this application package, Amber Education Services Ltd. offers a Training Support Program Application Advisor to assist you with your application. Please contact your local office for an appointment. The email address for: Duncan is applicationadvisorcowichan@ambered.com, Nanaimo is applicationadvisornanaimo@ambered.com and Victoria is applicationadvisorvictoria@ambered.com
- Financial assistance is offered, on a cost shared basis, for eligible unemployed workers. This assistance is designed for those who require training and could not afford it without support.
- On page 3, you are asked to record your financial contribution, whether it be cash or in kind. "In kind" is defined as a non-cash contribution. For example, if you require daycare and someone will look after your children at no cost, this is an "in kind" contribution. If you are receiving EI Benefits, do not record them as your cash contribution.
- Financial assistance you receive under the Training Support Program will be included in your income for tax purposes. Amber Education Services Ltd. will withhold a portion of your financial assistance for tax purposes.
- Please be aware that any unresolved credit issues may result in your Training Application Package being declined in light of unacceptable level of risk to Training Support Program funds.
- The requested training cannot have started prior to the approval of your Training Application Package by Amber Education Services Ltd. An unconditional acceptance letter will be required with your application.
- If intended training/employment requires pre-screening such as: Grade 12 or equivalent, driver's license, medical check, criminal record check, etc. then we will require a copy of such with your application.
- As per the Contract between the Government of British Columbia and Amber Education Services Ltd., personal information provided in this application, in relationship to our Contract, will be disclosed to the Government of British Columbia.

TRAINING SUPPORT PROGRAM

Taxation and your Financial Assistance
Information Sheet for Clients

Amber Education Services Ltd. has a contract with the Government of British Columbia to provide the Training Support Program. As part of this contract, Amber Education Services Ltd. is required to deduct income tax from financial assistance provided to participants of the Training Support Program. These deductions are forwarded to Canada Revenue Agency.

Financial assistance you receive from the Training Support Program is considered taxable income the year you receive it. Participants are issued T4e's for their income tax return.

- Amber Education Services Ltd. will deduct an amount for income tax from the money provided for training but no deduction will be taken from tuition, dependant care and tax deductible disability support amounts because tax credits may be claimed to offset any income tax payable on these amounts. The amount deducted for income tax is a percentage based on information entered on the Personal Tax Credits Return (TD1 and TD1BC) completed at time of contracting.
- Eligible institutions/programs may issue tax receipts which may be used for tuition tax credit. However, the tax receipt is only for training received in that tax year. Participants may wish to pay only the amount of tuition relating to the portion of training which takes place that year.
- Applicants currently receiving Government Child Tax Benefits and/or Goods and Services Tax credit payments, may find these payments affected by financial assistance received from the Training Support Program.

An example if the deducted percentage for income tax was 10%
Item	Amount Requested (C)	10% Tax Deduction at source (D)	Amount Received from TSP (C) - (D)
Tuition	$ 3,000.00		$ 3,000.00
Course Supplies	$ 100.00	$ 10.00	$ 90.00
Transportation	$ 160.00	$ 16.00	$ 144.00
Books	$ 500.00	$ 50.00	$ 450.00
Tax Deductible Disability Supports	$ 200.00		$ 200.00
Dependant Care ($270/mo x 10mo)	$ 2,700.00		$ 2,700.00
Living Expenses ($900/mo x 10mo)	$ 9,000.00	$ 900.00	$ 8,100.00
Totals :	$ 15,660.00	$ 976.00	$ 14,684.00

Please Note in this example:

- The applicant requested a total of $15,660.00, the cheques provided to the participant will total $14,684.00.
- An amount equal to the 10% tax deduction at source needs to be provided by the participant in order to cover the remaining costs of Course Supplies, Books etc.

I certify that I have read and understand the above tax information and tax consequences.
